JOIN THE ETOBICOKE CENTRE YOUTH COUNCIL

For Youths aged 16 – 24

As a part of our commitment to meaningful youth engagement in Canada's government, we are providing opportunities for young Canadians to work directly with Borys Wrzesnewskyj, your Member of Parliament.

The Etobicoke Centre Youth Council is open for applications until February 15th and will include youth from different schools, neighborhoods and local associations. Once selected, the council will meet several times, through the year, to discuss important issues that matter to you!

Frequently Asked Questions:

WHO can apply?

Anyone from 16 to 24 years of age who lives in Etobicoke Centre. We are seeking youth with different interests, experiences and takes on the world. All voices are welcome!

HOW can you apply?

Visit our website to apply: <http://bwrzesnewskyj.liberal.ca>

How much TIME do you have to commit to the council?

The council will meet several times per year to discuss different topics and organize community projects. The expected time commitment is roughly 6 to 10 hours.

WHAT does the council do?

Members of the council will share their ideas, opinions and concerns on a selection of topics with each other and Borys Wrzesnewskyj, your Member of Parliament. The notes from these discussions will be reported back to government to help inform decision making.

WHY should you apply for the ECYC?

1. You get valuable face-to-face time with your Member of Parliament and your ideas are shared to help shape choices on policies and the direction of government.
2. Your time on the council is volunteer experience! If you are in High School, your time on the ECYC counts towards your volunteer hours for graduation.
3. Your MP will provide you with an official House of Commons Certificate as a member of the Youth Council for the constituency which you can include in applications for work or post-secondary school.
